Weekly Bulletin—Friday 15th October 2021

Reminder - school finishes at normal time (3.15pm) next Friday 22nd October. We hope that all staff and children enjoy a well deserved break after a busy half term!

Monday 1st November is INSET DAY, so we look forward to seeing all children back in school Tuesday 2nd November.

There will be school photos on Tuesday 2nd November, so please can all children come to school in their full uniform. If they have PE or Forest School, please bring these clothes in a bag.

Here are the 5 winners of 'Read to a pet' competition. Many thanks to Judge Emma Tuke-Bennett from the vets who loved all the entries!

Well done to Otter Class who went litter picking in the community this week.

Well done to Nursery parents for their creativity with fantastic space costumes, we made the local newspaper.

Deadline: 5pm, 31st October

Next week on Friday 22nd October, we are supporting two important charities:

Breast Cancer Awareness and MacMillan Cancer Support.

This is in loving memory of Mrs Sergeant who received care from MacMillan

Cancer Support and in support of Mrs Kelsall who is currently undergoing treatment for Breast Cancer.

We invite everyone to wear something pink or fancy dress!

We ask for a donation to be sent in. This will be split between the two charities.

We have a professional cake maker making cakes and every child can purchase one for £1 if they wish.

All allergies catered for.

Great Darnhall Bake Off

We are holding a
'Family Bake Off' competition

When? Next Thursday 21st October 2021

What? Bake and decorate any cake you choose—the theme is

Nature and Wildlife

Who? Everyone can enter!

We would like one cake per family

Why? Baking is fun to do for all the family and teaches lots of different skills including maths, science and of course patience!

Where? Darnhall Primary School

All cakes to be sent into school in a NAMED CONTAINER and these will be returned home at night after judging.

FOREST SCHOOL

Caterpillar class will get the chance to enjoy activities with Forest School next term on a Friday.

They will need to wear their forest school uniform on a Friday. Please can parents collect their FREE green hoody and T-shirt from their class teacher.

We recommend they bring either a pair of wellies, or old footwear into school and wear waterproof trousers

Superstars
