Dear Parents and Carers,

On Wednesday 20th April, Year 6 are invited to a 'Bowling Extravaganza' at Tenpin bowling in Warrington. Year 6 has had a tough few years due to COVID-19 and many disruptions and we want them to enjoy the end of their primary years as much as possible. We thought this would be a great social event and they will be able to socialise and relax with their friends.

Children will need to meet on the Early Years playground ready for the coach that is leaving at 4.30 pm and will play TWO games of bowling and have a 'Burger and Chips' meal whilst they are there. We are hoping to return to school at 8pm (Darnhall School Lane) – we will put a post on Facebook when we are leaving Warrington with an expected time.

This event will be non-uniform and they must wear trainers. They are allowed to bring their own spending money – maximum £10.

The parental contribution for this visit is £16.50 per child. We are not able to offer any free places or subsidies, as this is a social trip.

You will need to pay and give consent for your child to attend on our Parent Pay system. DEADLINE 31st MARCH.

In order for us to be able to offer this price, we will need a minimum of 40 children from year 6 to attend.

Kind regards,

Mr H Baxendale & Miss C Lupton
Year 6 Teachers
