Hello Dragonflies,

Here is the learning overview for Wednesday 13th January.

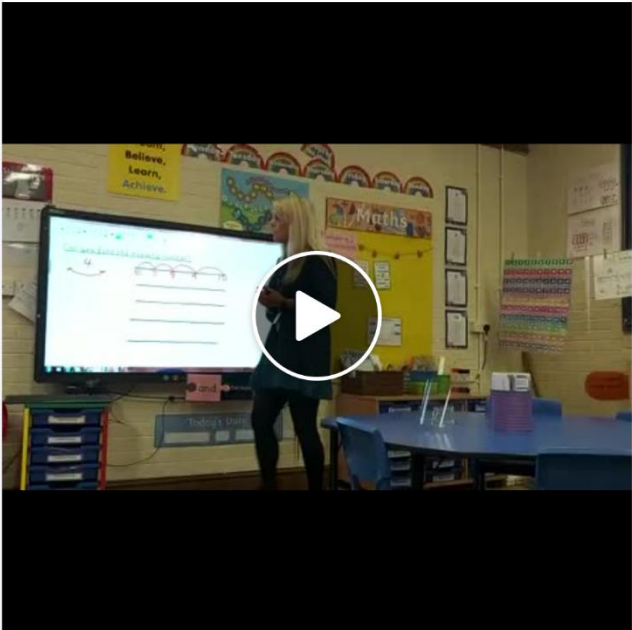

Thanks to those of you that are uploading your child's work on to their portfolio. It really helps me to see if I need to repeat certain skills for when I plan for the week ahead.

I also love seeing how hard your children have been working and their lovely smiley faces.

Have we all logged on to TT Rockstars yet? 🙄

Mr. Lambert sent you all your log ins via ClassDojo messages!

Try and spend at least 10 minutes on TT rockstars a day to become a true rockstar!

Mr. Dunning and Mr. Baxendale are currently top of the pops! 🗡️

Who can knock them off their perch?

Jack this is a fantastic piece of writing!
Well done! 🍌 😊 I love all of the adjectives and similes you have used. 😊

English 📖 13.01.2021 - Lesson Resources

Here are a few resources to accompany today's English lesson, should you want to use them. 😊

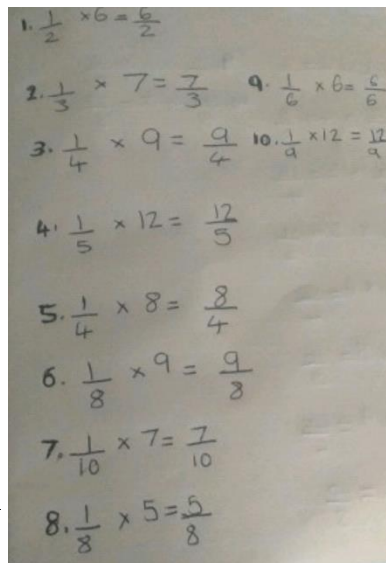

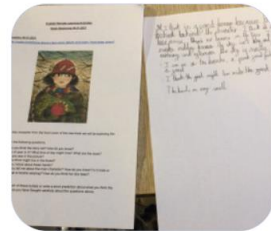

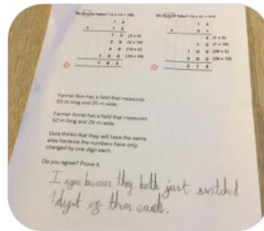

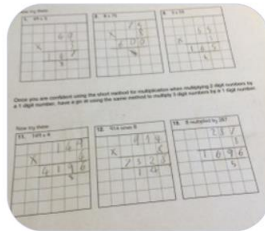

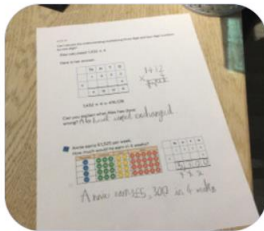

Reminder of today's activities (these are explained fully in the video):

Activity 1

List as many expanded noun phrases and similes as you can to describe the witch. Remember to be adventurous with your vocabulary choices and use an online thesaurus to help you if you need it.

Activity 2

Join your ideas together to write a descriptive paragraph about the witch.

Feedback from parents

Firstly I'd just like to send a heartfelt thanks to you all for everything you are doing and the support that is being provided for families. I have seen some posts regarding social media posts but I can personally say I have only ever seen positive comments and people praising Darnhall and I'm very proud that my two children are part of the Darnhall family. Also a huge thanks to Mr Jenks - I had sent a message across because [REDACTED] had not been fully engaged in her home learning and he offered to send her a message, thankfully it only took for me to say that I'd messaged him for her to shoot to the table and she's been so much more engaged and willing to learn. (I don't no how the teachers do it, real life superheroes!). [REDACTED] also was struggling with subordinating sentences and within 5 minutes of Mr Jenks knowing he sent over some additional resources that we could look at! Also hi,

just to say a big thank you for all the help, support and positivity. Even though I am still working I love coming home to see [REDACTED] with a big smile on his face and telling me all about the fun he has had doing the work. The work which reception are being provided with is excellent and keeps [REDACTED] (and my husband) busy. I cannot fault the communication at all.

thanks again.

Already done last week. Absolutely fantastic school. The best part of our big move to a new area was how happy H is in school now. You have all done such an amazing job at providing such fantastic remote learning. Thank you so much ❤️

I am really impressed with the lesson quality and delivery. Mrs Edward's and Miss Morris have delivered some engaging and varied lessons for year 3 with additional support links posted if required. They are both a real asset to Team D. I couldn't praise or thank them enough xx
